

The Company Citizen: Good for Business, Planet, Nation and Community

1 The case for company citizenship 1

The moral case 8
The political case 10
The business case 13
The internal duty – to owner and market 15
The external duty – to taxpayers and stakeholders 15
The global duty – to communities and the future 17

2 The world is ready 24

Food and hunger 25
Climate change 28
Water 32
War 34
Migration and refugees 37
Other global issues 40
Brexit 42

3 Britain is ready 49

Poverty in Britain 53
Self-employment 58
Foodbanks 60
Public services 63
Outsourcing 67

4 Business is ready 73

Purpose, values and mission 77
The circular economy 87
The inclusive economy 89
Getting away with it 93

5 Stakeholders are ready 98

The shareholder 98
The investor 103
The customer 106
The workforce 109
Employee ownership 114
‘Corporate Social Responsibility’ 116

6 The supply chain is ready 122

Modern slavery 122
Bribery and corruption 127
Human rights 129
Employment rights 132
Prompt payment 134
Resource issues 135

7 Communities are ready 139

Jobs and skills 141
Local sourcing 143
The Social Value Act 144
The people 147
Engaging with the community 151
Health 163
Measuring the difference 166

8 The future is ready 170

Agg and frag 172
Going forward – sustainability 175
Going forward – growing markets 179
Going forward – responsibility 183
Or a power for ill? 186
Take-away: a company citizenship code 189

By Tom Levitt

Published by Routledge

© 2018

Available from November 2017

ISBN: 9781138058729 (hardback)

ISBN: 9781138063037 (paperback)

ISBN: 9781315164038 (e-book)